

TOP BRASS

ELITE BRASS ENSEMBLE PROGRAM FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

SATURDAY, 10/22, 2016 | 9AM- 6PM | MUSIC BUILDING, MSU CAMPUS

Take part in an intense and exciting brass ensemble training and performance day lead by MSU's very own Beaumont Brass Quintet.

Join an elite group of brass musicians from around the state, experience top level training in a beautiful university setting, and discover how to take your musicianship to the next level. Students must audition for entry to the program.

AUDIO AUDITIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY 10/7, 2016

To be accepted to the program, students are required to submit a three-minute audio recording (video not required) Two octave major scale of choice, two octave chromatic scale, and two minutes of a solo or etude (3 minutes total).

Top Brass will include eight brass ensembles: Four brass quintets, one trombone choir, one horn choir, one trumpet choir, and one tuba/euphonium ensemble.

music.msu.edu/topbrass

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY BEAUMONT BRASS QUINTET

Justin Emerich, associate professor of trumpet
Ava Ordman, associate professor of trombone
Philip Sinder, professor of tuba and euphonium
Corbin Wagner, associate professor of horn
Eduardo Farias, substitute second trumpet

College of Music
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

